Hello everyone

Today i am taking my time to write you guys this thread.

It has been two years now since i ventured into forex,

My capabity in learning things and turning my ideas into innovation is something outstanding.

But when it came to forex it was different,, it was one of the biggest challenge of my life.

I have solved complex equation of physics but forex challenges really brought me solitude , depression, made me looked witless.

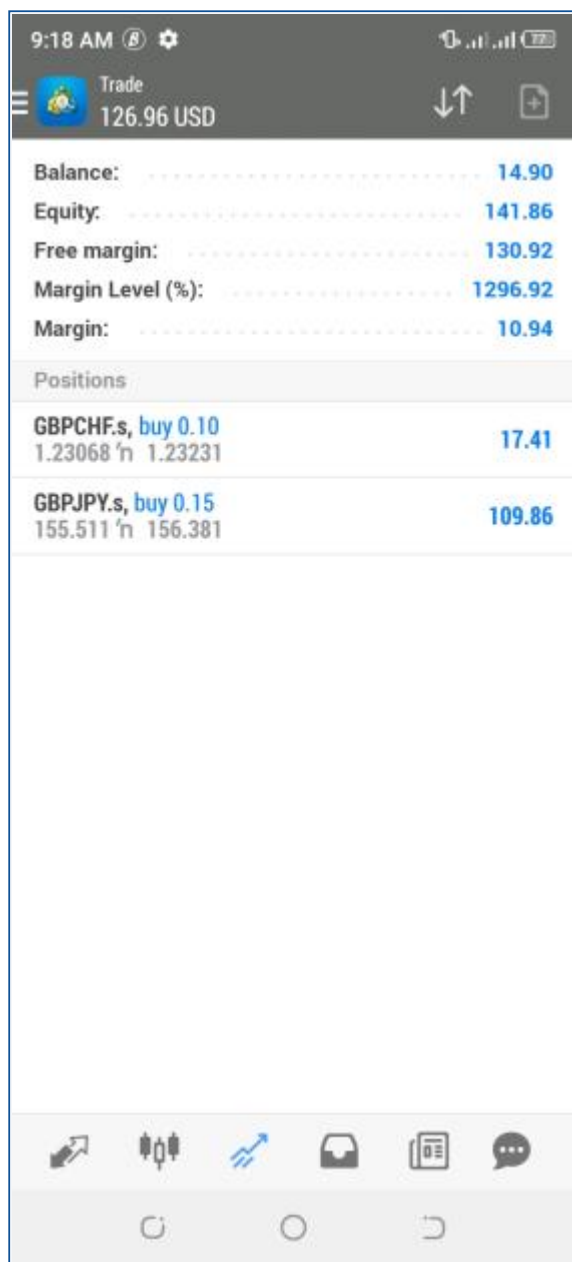

I took every pill of challenge and swallowed it in a hard way. I was still student and almost every cent of my loan, parents money i rented it all to the market,

I hereby call all traders who are looking for professionals m and perfection in making money

The goal is to make money and nothing else , if you are profitable and ur making a lot of money am afraid this part doesn't concern you.

I took my time , i saw things in different angles, i observed every movements every candlestick moves , i devoted my time and almost threw away my physics degree, but thanks GOD i graduated.

The reason why i started this thread is because i need something from you guys and you will get something from me in return.

It's all about trading before news and after major news release, with minimum risk to high reward ratio of 1:500/month

Here is what I am talking about

If you can take a look from these pictures you will find that, these trades were executed right before and after news releases, this is the reason why I am writing you guys this thread, the purpose is to make money.

My study about trading major fundamental news release showed that in a month one can make up to 1:500 risk to reward ratio.

How ???

this is why I am here writing this thread.

I am a physicist always expect something of quality from me.

Here is my telegram, we will discuss a lot of things about trading before and after news, this means that you can trade up to 10 times a month and make a lot of money still and balance your time.

i am rising fund for my trading activities through giving you something i shouldn't have given or discussed with anyone .

it's my research and it has 99.9% accuracy.

only traders who are willing to contribute little something can join my telegram channel, we have the following news Coming

- 1. Nzd interest rate
- 2. Boc overnight rates.
- 3. NFP
- 4. So much more

i assure all traders who are looking for the better way to make money to join my telegram channel after one month of following and discussion they will understand something that they will have to keep secrets as long as they are making money.

I also followed every detail of the following people

George Soros

Jim Simons

Stanley druckernmiller

Bruce covner

There is something in common to all these successful traders ,

It's a catalyst of the market and that's what we will be talking about.

Follow this link and we will start discussing about the events that is going to take place on 24 May, I'll see you there, and please make sure you mantain your professionalism and be a good secret keeper for long run else you will fall short.

Thanks 🙏
